Re: Castillo and Boonnak v. Time Warner Cable of New York City, a Division of Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P.
09 Civ. 7644 (PAC)
KM&M File No. 08319.0022

Dear Judge Crotty:

Our firm is counsel to Defendant Time Warner Cable of New York City, a Division of Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P. ("Defendant") in the referenced action.

Our firm has retained TrialGraphix to provide courtroom presentation technology equipment in connection with the upcoming trial in the referenced matter, scheduled to commence on May 7, 2012. We are writing to respectfully request the Court's permission: (a) to use this technology at trial; and (b) for TrialGraphix to be allowed access through courthouse security, on the morning of May 4, 2012, to bring the equipment to court for set up prior to the trial. Upon completion of the trial, TrialGraphix technicians will also need permission to enter the courtroom to break down and remove the equipment. I have enclosed a description of: (a) the equipment TrialGraphix will provide; (b) the names of the TrialGraphix employees who may attend the setup; and (c) their vehicle information. We have offered to share use of the equipment with Plaintiffs' counsel. Plaintiffs' counsel has not expressed any interest in sharing this equipment, or any objection to Defendant's use of this equipment.

I have also enclosed a proposed Order which lists the individuals who, with the Court's permission, wish to bring laptops and/or Blackberrys into the courthouse through the duration of trial. This list includes Jason Young, a TrialGraphix
